Supervisors Instructed To Report Delinquent Tax Records by July 1

State's Atty. Moran Starts All-out Campaign to Collect $750,000 Due

Supervisor Lloyd E. Murrie of Antioch Township and Edward Tiede of Lake Villa Township were among the supervisors told by State's Atty. Thomas J. Moran that he plans an all-out campaign to collect delinquent personal property taxes.

He asked them to check the 1954 and 1955 records for their townships and have their reports turned in by next Thursday.

On July 1, justices of the peace and police magistrates of the county will begin instituting court proceedings against those who have not paid their taxes.

Only the principal amounts are sought, Moran said, and no penalty will be added.

Action can be avoided, however, if the taxes are paid by July 1.

"If people don't pay, there is no choice but to garnish wages or bank accounts or levy on their property," Moran said.

The state's attorney had a meeting last month with justices of the peace and police magistrates in which they received instructions from the County Board.

Immediate goal is $750,000 in back taxes.

At the same time the county stands to collect an estimated $5 million and the return of 15,000 parcels of delinquent land to the tax roll.

30,000 Gas Permits Issued by N. I. G. C.

"We were very happy to announce last week that we had issued 30,000 residential gas heat authorizations," Marvin Chandler, president of Northern Illinois Gas company, told stockholders Tuesday morning at the utility's annual meeting in Aurora. He reminded them, however, that the natural gas supply problem will remain the company's chief concern "until the end of 1958 at the earliest."

Referring to the gas supply situation in Northern Illinois Gas territory, Chandler said the recent gas heat authorization was made possible by several factors. One was that the company could expect a 5 per cent increase in its pipeline supply from one of the utility's suppliers next winter. This will result from increasing the capacity of the compressors on the supplier's pipeline system.

A moderate increase in the amount of gas stored in the Herscher underground field also is available. Experience last winter with Herscher indicated that, following large withdrawals of gas on the colder days, substantial quantities could be put back into the reservoir on warmer days.

He also referred to the successful experimental purchase of a small amount of refinery gas from the Clark Oil & Refining Corporation in Blue Island last winter on cold days. Arrangements are being made to obtain this supply next winter.

Additional purchases of propane during the winter months to supplement the amount the company now has in storage, plus the fact the company's load on a zero day wasn't quite as heavy as projected were other factors that prompted the company's recent gas heat authorization.

"Even with this reduction in our backlog," Chandler said, "we do not consider it a health situation and we are not happy about it."

He mentioned that at the present time the expansion program of the company's suppliers appears to have cleared many of the regulatory obstacles which have been troublesome during the last year and a half.

Hearings on Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America's proposed tie-in to the west with the Colorado Interstate Gas Company system are now nearing a conclusion before the Federal Power Commission, and a decision can be expected within a matter of months.

"This should provide sufficient time to complete the construction of the facilities during 1958 barring any adverse developments, such as a successful court attack of a Commission order," Chandler said.

State Seeks Bids on 3.62 Miles Blacktop On Rte. 21 at Antioch

Antioch may be in for some street improvement if the report from Springfield on Governor Stratton's highway program is properly interpreted.

The state Division of Highways announced it will receive bids June 21 on $13,500,000 worth of construction projects, and listed 3.62 miles of bituminous surface on Rtes. 83 and 21 at Antioch.

John Blackman, chairman of the streets and alleys committee of the Village Board believes that it is the rest of the highway from 173 to the state line and some other area south of Antioch.

Last year's improvement of the highway (both the same road), did not extend to the Wisconsin State line, and a promise was given to complete that part this summer.

The improvement here is the only one for Lake county.

Camp Lake Woman Claimed Beaten for Seeking Stolen Purse

A Camp Lake woman known to Antioch police as Mrs. Boyd, complained to Kenosha Sheriff's deputies that while she was in an Antioch restaurant last week she saw a purse that she believed was stolen from her sister.

She said that when she demanded the purse the son-in-law of the Kenosha woman who had the purse struck her. She showed cuts on her lip and nose and a bruised left cheek which she said resulted from the Kenosha man's striking and kicking her.

Police Chief Walter Scott said Mrs. Boyd had opportunity to file charges but hadn't done so yet.

Bingo Games Halted At Mundelein and at Fox Lake This Week

Bingo games at Fox Lake and Mundelein were stopped last week and this week as the result of publicity given complaints.

At Fox Lake, the American Legion nightly game and two others were closed after they began drawing large crowds from Wisconsin and complaint was made that women were gambling their money away when it was needed for food.

Those in charge admitted that the entertainment had grown beyond bounds and were glad to close until such a time when only local persons would play.

At Mundelein, the Village Board licensed a bingo game operated under a tent, and refused to close it until the Attorney General Latham Castle, instructed State's Atty. Thomas Moran that the giving of merchandise was gambling the same as money, and that the Mundelein game constituted a violation of the law.

The Rev. Stanley C. Brown, Diamond Lake Methodist minister had called upon the Mundelein village board to close the bingo game and to prevent gambling of this nature at the approaching Mundelein Days festival conducted by the Chamber of Commerce.

Whether the bingo games will be eliminated at the carnival at Mundelein is not known.

Waitresses May Get Silver Dollar for Just Suggesting Some Milk

"Milk with your meal" and "Milk now—Coffee later" are slogans that make silver dollars for waitresses all over Lake county.

Lake County Farm Bureau is sponsoring a momentous Silver Dollar campaign to increase the amount of milk consumed in restaurants. Borden's, Bowman's, Cop, Hawthorne-Mellody, Meadow Gold, and Spinney Run Dairies have donated hundreds of silver dollars to be given to waitresses in Lake county who suggest milk to their customers.

Dozens of business men, dairy representatives, and civic leaders who frequently eat in restaurants have these silver dollars to give to waitresses who suggest milk.

Everyone stands to gain as a result of milk promotion, says Avery Vose, Antioch, member of the promotion committee. The customer enjoys a healthful meal; satisfied customers are the restaurant's business, and dairies and dairy farmers gain by increased volume.

This campaign has no time limit. It will continue until all the dollars donated have been given out.

Judges Will Discuss Traffic Penalties in County-wide Meeting

Justices of the Peace and Police Magistrates have been asked to assemble at Waukegan next week to talk over uniform methods and rules in dealing with traffic violations. Efforts to reduce traffic violations are said to be obstructed somewhat because of the lack of uniformity of the lower courts in dealing with violations. State's Atty. Moran and the Safety Commission will lead the meeting.

Parents Desert Four Children to Return to Native Land -- Russia

George 8, and Richard Kosmin, 10, today are at play at the Central Baptist Children's home at Lake Villa unminful of the fact that their parents have deserted them and gone to Russia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kozmins, aided by the Russian embassy left on Tuesday for the land behind the iron curtain, leaving after their 9-month-old infant son, Peter, was taken from his mother's arms by a U. S. welfare agency.

Mr. Kosmin, 54, and Mrs. Kosmin, 35, came to the United States in 1950 from Germany as displaced persons. Three sons, Richard, 10, George and Paul were born in a displaced persons camp in Germany. The baby was born in Chicago, and Mrs. Kosmin is expecting another baby which she wants to arrive in Russia.

The older boys told their parents they didn't want to leave this country and the courts protected them in this matter.

The elder Kosmins were committed to a mental hospital for treatment and the children were placed under the supervision of the Chicago Family Court. George and Richard were sent to the children's home and Paul placed in the home of foster parents.

Richard and George earlier had been planning to spend some time this summer with their parents under a plan approved by Family Court Judge John H. Clayton, Jr. as part of a program to reunite the family. The plan was revealed at the last hearing at which the parents sought custody of the children and, although the parents said then they would return to Russia, it had been anticipated that they would delay their departure at least until after the children's visit.

Officials at the home said the boys could have been advised that their parents were planning to leave this week by a man with whom they had lived for a time previously and who also was a close friend of their parents. The man visited them Sunday, but they had not seen their parents since they were in Chicago for the last court hearing.

The boys apparently will remain at the home during the summer, officials of the home said.

Hickory Corner School District 27 Will Vote On Educational Tax

A referendum on a proposal to increase the educational tax from 50 to 71 cents on the $100 assessed valuation will be held by Hickory Corners School District No. 27 on Saturday, June 29.

Voting will be from noon to 7 p. m. at the school.

The present receipt is $4,320.07, and the new rate would bring in approximately $6,134.51.

Marvin Van Patten expressed his opinion that the tax should have been increased two years ago.

"We thought we could get by, but the increased costs made it necessary for us to borrow $500 to get through this year," he said.

The school has been operated upon a minimum levy, but like in other districts costs have increased.

Nels C. Christensen, 77, Dies Wednesday, June 12

Nels C. Christensen, 77 years of age, died at 9 p. m. Wednesday, June 12, at his home on Rte. 45 after a long illness.

Mr. Christensen was a member of Danish Brotherhood, Lodge 182 of Waukegan.

Surviving are his wife, Anna, two sons, Elmer of Waukegan, and Harold of Antioch; three daughters, Mrs. Carrie Mouritsen and Mrs. Elly Christensen, both of Waukegan, and Mrs. Clara Vose, Jefferson, Oregon; five brothers: Jacob, Sherman, N. Y., Marinius, Columbus, N. J.; Emil, Racine, Wis.; Anton, Waukegan; Charles of Elmhurst, Ill.; 12 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Saturday at Strang's Funeral home, with the Rev. L. H. Messersmith of Millburn officiating. Burial will be in Hickory Union cemetery.

"Public Debt Is Not Like Private Debt"

Most of us know that the federal debt is about $275 billion. But few have any concept of what that means—it's just a figure, almost beyond human comprehension.

Senator Byrd, writing in National Review, gives a vivid picture of the debt. That $275 billion, he says, "is the equivalent of the assessed value of all the land, buildings, mines, machinery, factories, livestock—everything of tangible value in the United States."

Then he goes on to say something that must be far better understood than it is now if this country, as we know it, is to survive: "Public debt is not like private debt. If private debt is not paid off, it can be ended by bankruptcy proceedings, and maybe not many people are hurt. If public debt is not paid off—paid off with taxes—the result is disastrous inflation or repudiation. Either would destroy our form of government."

The proposed new budget is the largest in our peacetime history. According to the estimates, there will be a small surplus if this budget is approved. But it is evident that even a very moderate decline in the business boom, with the effect that would have on tax revenues, would eliminate such a surplus and put a deficit in its place.

Senator Byrd believes such a budget can be cut by more than $6 billion without harm to an essential federal function. If we cannot do that now, with the economy running at peak speed, when can we?

Grassroots Opinion

MOOREFIELD, W. VA., EXAMINER: "No matter what kind of an income taxpayer you are, about one in thirty of you will get audited this year. And that means you'll have to prove a lot of things—especially those unusual deductions and stuff like that. They may even audit your bank book. But you won't have to go to Atlanta even if you are a teeny bit crooked. The odds are about two in 10,000 after you get caught. Just pay up, pay the penalty and fine and go and sin no more."

OSWEGO, KANSAS, INDEPENDENT: Dry weather, heat, floods, blizzards may hinder growth and development in field crops, orchards and livestock but none of those elements seem to have the slightest effect or retardation on the continuing growth and expansion of the public payrolls, at both national and state levels, as well as in lower categories. How to head it off seems to be the problem of the ages. . . . The case of the sad ending of the cow that continued to suck herself is recalled."

BAYBORO, N. C., HERALD: "The Red Cross is truly a saving grace—give it your interest and your financial support. It may well come back to you when disaster strikes again."

HUNTINGBURG, IND., INDEPENDENT: "There is probably no newspaper in Indiana which does not have a policy of protecting wayward children whose initial offenses are trivial and deserve to be ignored. J. Edgar Hoover subscribes to that policy when he writes, 'Certainly, reasonable leniency for children committing first offenses and minor violations is a proper consideration. However, the present major problem is no longer one of bad children but of young criminals.'"

BEAVER FALLS, PA., NEWS-TRIBUNE: "The premier of Hungary was recently given a hero's welcome in Moscow. Most puppeteers are equally careful in how they handle their puppets."

Grassroots Opinion

MOOSE LAKE, MINN., STAR-GAZETTE: "Casualty lists of U. S. highways have mounted steadily until in 1956 all records of heedless haste and needless waste were shamefully broken. The fact of human suffering and death speak for themselves. . . . If this year's records is equal to that of 1956, one in 70 Americans will be a statistic . . . a pain wracked survivor, or a name in the obituary column."

RUPERT, IDAHO, NEWS: "Who has the biggest payroll in the world? Why, the U. S. government, of course! . . . In January, the payroll for civilians reached $1,000,000,000 per month! If it continues at this rate, the 1957 payroll will exceed $12,000,000,000."

WELLINGTON, O., ENTERPRISE: "Obviously, there can be no such thing as 'profit before taxes'. Before taxes, you can't be sure whether you have won or lost for the year. Take your own performance in 1955, for instance. How much more would you have made, or put in your savings account, if it hadn't been for that little item of income tax?"

TAZEWELL, TENN., PROGRESS: "The litterbugs have become so bad in our area that most of the shoulders of the roads look like garbage heaps." ROSEBURG, ORE., NEWS-REVIEW: "Before we can rid ourselves of confiscatory taxes, we must make up our minds to do things for ourselves instead of having everything done for us by a paternalistic-socialist government."

KNOXVILLE, GA., POST: "Approval of the Alabama Public Service Commission was sought recently for the building of a huge steam-electric power plant on the Cocoa River. The Southern Electric Generating Co. which proposes to build and operate the plant, will be owned jointly by Georgia Power Co. and Alabama Power Co. The new generating station will be one of the nation's largest. It will require the expenditure of about $150,000,000. Plans contemplate the installation of four 250,000 kilowatt units for a total initial power capacity of 1,000,000 kilowatts."

Either Too Much or Too Little Rain

The farmer always has a worry. Last year, when it was dry, he wondered if it would ever rain; this year, when it was wet, he wondered when it would quit in time for him to get his crops planted. Another current worry for many Northern Corn Belt farmers in the first week of June is continuing low temperatures. In most sections corn planting has been delayed a week to three weeks, because of rain, and what is needed now is high temperatures to speed growth. Instead, night temperatures of 40 degrees have been reported in June in the North Central Corn Belt. A DeKalb seed corn reporter says in Southwest Minnesota it took four weeks for planted corn to come up—with seven to ten days being normal time.

Farther south, continued rains kept a wide belt too wet for planting. From West Texas, Northeast across Oklahoma, Arkansas, South Missouri, Western Tennessee, Illinois, Southern Indiana and into Ohio and Michigan rain continued to be excessive.

Hay and pastures are abundant crop in most areas because it takes moisture for maximum foliage for production, but continued rain has hampered hay harvest and drying in many sections.

FORTY THOUSAND FUNERALS

will result from traffic accidents this year... will yours be one of them?

Sudden death will strike over 40,000 men, women and children in traffic accidents in 1956, unless all of us do something about it!

Here's How You Can Help Stop Traffic Tragedies

1. Drive safely and courteously yourself. Watch traffic and pedestrians carefully. Observe speed limits and warning signs. Where drivers stay alert and obey the law, deaths go DOWN!
2. Insist on strict enforcement of all traffic laws in your community. Traffic regulations work for you, not against you. Wherever traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Animal Tamer

The next time a veterinarian is confronted with a dog made snarling and vicious by its illness, he may pop a tranquilizer into the animal's mouth, and the snarls will vanish into cooperative friendliness.

Sick dogs—even those which are not naturally bad-tempered—can turn vicious toward strangers. Not only do they resist examination and treatment by the veterinarian, but they may tear off bandages, or rip open surgical stitches.

Many animals, however, respond to the new tranquilizing drugs, giving the veterinarian a new advantage. Ataxaroid, for instance, seems to work as well with pets as it does with their masters. It's a combination of a mild tranquilizer used to treat everyday tensions in humans, with the latest hormone for relief of arthritis, rheumatism, and skin diseases.

The tranquilizing drugs open many other possibilities, too. They may be employed to soothe nervous horses so that they can be trained better, and to treat cattle before shipping so that they won't lose weight through loss of appetite. Zoo and circus vets hope that the drugs can be used to calm animals during long trips, so that exhaustion will not make them easy marks for disease. The drugs may be used to tranquilize flighty birds, too.

They may even help make a watchdog out of the pup who runs and hides under the bed when it thunders!

Local Officials Invited To Ceremony Starting Nuclear Power Station

The start of major construction on Dresden Nuclear Power Station will be celebrated in the Northern Division of Public Service Company next Wednesday. Antioch officials, industries and civic organizations have been invited to attend a special ceremony at the North Shore Hotel, Evanston.

The atomic power station of the Commonwealth Edison Public Service system will have the country's largest nuclear power reactor. Approximately 600 men are now at work on the Dresden project, which is located on the Illinois waterway at the meeting point of the Kankakee, DesPlaines and Illinois rivers. The 950-acre site in Grundy county is about eight miles east of Morris.

According to H. W. Otto, division vice-president of Public Service Company, the Evanston luncheon meeting next Wednesday will be part of a company-wide observance, in which proceedings in Chicago will be beamed by closed-circuit telecast to various division locations. Meetings also are scheduled in Dixon, Oak Park and Olympia Fields.

Speakers at the ceremony headquarters in Chicago will include Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission; Willis Gale, chairman of Commonwealth Edison Company, and Cramer La-Pierre, vice-president of General Electric Company.

Scheduled for completion in 1960, Dresden station will have a capacity of 180,000 kilowatts. The dual cycle boiling water reactor plant is being built by General Electric Company for a contract price of $45,000,000. Bechtel Corporation is the constructor-engineer.

L. Villa Twp. Library Plans Active Summer Program for Readers

The Lake Villa Township Library plans an active summer reading program. Financially supported by the Lake Villa Woman's Club and the Lake Villa P. T. A., this program includes a Saturday morning story circle for very young children, a reading club for older children, and many new books to interest teen-age and adult readers.

The Pigmy Rocketeers will meet on Saturday mornings from 10:30 to 11:30 in the library. Membership will include children of kindergarten and first grade age. Each child will be given a rocket to be placed on a large Universe map. Each attendance at the story circle will move the rocket on the map. Perfect attendance will take the child's rocket "right out of this world." Stories will be read by members of the Lake Villa Woman's Club and the Lake Villa P. T. A. Meetings of this group will start June 15 and end August 17.

The program for Older Children's Reading Club will start June 17. Children who read and report on ten books will receive a reward.

Generous additional donations from the Lake Villa Woman's Club, the Lake Villa Men's Club, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Welty of Venetian Village will allow the Library to purchase several dozen much-needed folding chairs for use by various library groups.

Introduce New Drug To Control Epilepsy

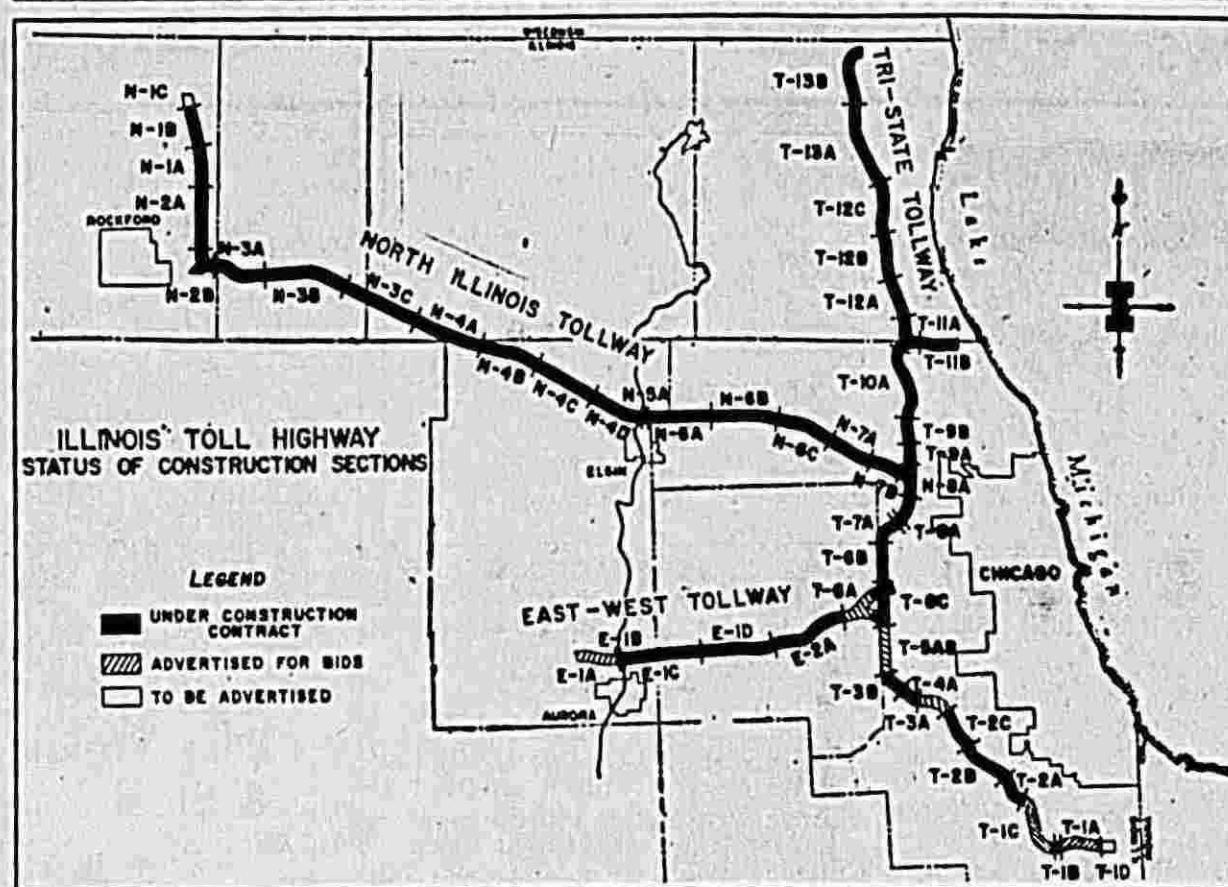

A new drug for controlling epileptic convulsions was introduced this week by Abbott Laboratories. Clinical trials indicated that the anti-convulsant causes unusually few and mild side effects.

Investigators reported that the new compound, Peganone (R), is particularly effective in grand mal or major epilepsy, which is characterized by severe convulsions and loss of consciousness. The drug also has proved valuable, especially when used with other antiepileptic drugs, in treating other types of epilepsy.

The trials were conducted for 2 1/2 years in more than 1,200 clinical cases. More than 40 investigators in hospitals throughout the nation studied the drug's effects on epileptic patients.

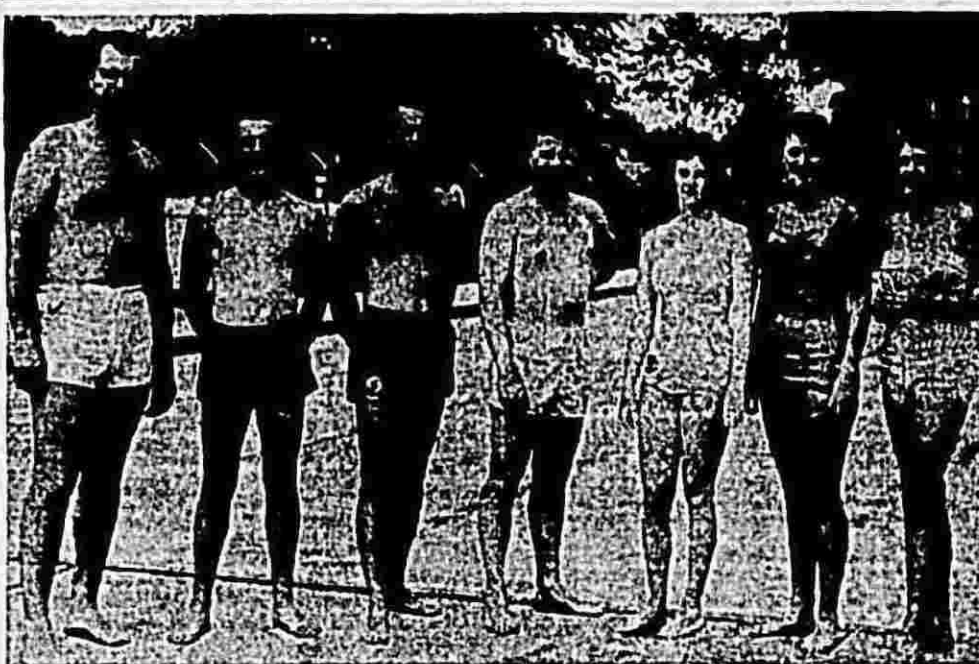

No serious side effects with Peganone were observed during the trials. Minor side effects were seen infrequently and were usually mild. No severe toxic reactions resulted from use of the drug.

Map Shows Illinois Toll Road Construction Under Way

Illinois' 187 miles of tollways, scheduled for completion December 31, 1958, are well into the construction phase with less than two miles remaining to be advertised for construction bids. A total of 160 miles is presently under construction contract, eight and one-half months after breaking of ground on the initial section east of Rockford. The entire tollway system is integrated with Chicago's metropolitan expressways and is to be linked with the network of toll highways extending to the eastern seaboard. Map shows status of project as of June 10. That portion through Lake county will exit on Rte. 41 near the Wisconsin State line, and will be completed July 31 next year.

Outdoorsman of the Year

Dr. Logan J. Bennett has been elected the 1956 Winchester Outdoorsman of the Year in a poll of the nation's leading newspaper and magazine outdoor writers. Dr. Bennett is Executive Director of the Pennsylvania Game Commission and foremost authority on wildlife subjects. Among other honors, he will receive a specially engraved and inlaid custom firearm. The award is donated annually by the Winchester-Western Division of the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation. Former recipients have been Brooklyn Dodger manager Walter Alton, and screen star Robert Taylor.

Oil is where you find it. And finding it is becoming increasingly difficult, as pointed up by the past six years' record of wildcat drilling. Only one well in 12 wildcats ever finds oil or natural gas; one well in 42 finds a field with reserves of one million barrels (big enough to pay); and one well in 706 locates a 50-million barrel field. Drilling one of these new field wildcats can cost anywhere from $100,000 to over a million dollars. Oil men have to invest huge sums to keep Americans supplied with petroleum energy and petroleum products in the quantities needed.

Small School Children May Forget Safety Rules

We have all heard the old saying, "Children will be children," and just about everyone agrees with it. Since school is out and the children are starting their summer vacation, motorists are asked to drive carefully especially in town where parked cars limit the driver's vision.

Remember that there will always be some children who will forget to practice safety rules such as crossing the street only at crosswalks. We all have seen children follow a ball into the street, ride a bicycle from between parked cars or take chances that could have ended in tragedy.

School patrol boys will not be on hand to remind the little ones this summer when traffic is at its heaviest, so use a little extra caution when driving during this vacation time.

Home for Summer

Miss Elizabeth Pechousek has returned from Duchesne College to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Pechousek, of Antioch. Elizabeth will enter the sophomore class at the Omaha college in September.

At elections at the end of the school year Elizabeth was chosen for membership next year on the Welfare committee, one of the five key committees in the Duchesne College student government.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Paulsen and family were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jahn, Sr., at Batavia Sunday. The party was in honor of Clifford Jahn, Jr.'s graduation.

New Law Puts Teeth In Real Estate Broker Licensing Regulation

Legislation putting teeth in the licensing regulations for real estate brokers and salesmen was passed by the Senate and House and was signed into law by the Governor on June 4, 1957.

The Bill was drafted and supported by the Illinois Association of Real Estate Boards which is made up of 49 Boards of Realtors throughout Illinois.

Dan R. McGaughey, President of the Waukegan-Lake County Board of Realtors, hailed the passage of Senate Bill 307 as "one of the most progressive improvements in the real estate business in more than a generation."

Under the present license law, a person suffering from insanity is eligible to take the broker's examination or to retain a license issued. Any person may take the examination who has been convicted of a felony, larceny, embezzlement, or who has obtained money under false pretenses or by means of a confidence game. Both of these serious weaknesses are remedied by Senate Bill 307. The bill makes the following improvements in the license law:

1. A license may be refused if the applicant has been convicted of a felony, larceny, embezzlement, obtaining money, property or credit by false pretenses or by means of a confidence game.

2. A license may be revoked or suspended if the registrant is found to be mentally ill.

3. It requires a broker to deposit in some bank or other depository in a special account, separate from any personal account, any money or other property of his principal held by him pending the happening of some anticipated future event specified by the principal.

4. It requires a broker to furnish copies upon request of all documents relating to a real estate transaction to all parties executing the same.

5. It provides that the license may be revoked or suspended when the registrant has been found guilty of misleading or untruthful advertising, including unauthorized use of any trade name or insignia or membership in any real estate organization of which the registrant is not a member.

6. It provides for one year qualification as a salesman before a person is eligible to take a broker's examination. However, all of this period will be waived by the Illinois Department of Registration and Education upon proof of completion of 96 hours of classroom work. (This would be the equivalent of six semester hours or, in effect, two three-hour courses.) 7. It authorizes the Department of Registration and Education to prescribe rules and define subjects in qualifying schools for the purpose of carrying out educational requirements. It also authorizes the department to sponsor education seminars for the benefit of all brokers and salesmen in the State of Illinois.

8. It provides for written examination of salesmen.

9. It provides for appointment of members of the examining committee for definite terms of three years. They may not be affiliated with real estate schools.

10. It provides that each broker shall maintain a definite office or place of business for the transaction of real estate business.

11. It increases examination fees for brokers from $10 to $25 and for salesmen from $5 to $15.

12. It makes further provisions for reciprocity agreement between states.

"Speaking for all members of our local Waukegan-Lake County Board of Realtors, we are proud to have taken an active part in this vital and worthwhile legislation, and consider our Organization particularly fortunate in having as chairman of our committee on taxation and legislation, State Representative W. J. Murphy. He is also a past president of our board, and has worked untiringly toward the passage of this Bill, which is in the public interest and will raise the standards of the real estate profession," President McGaughey said.

On Dec. 5, 1929, a Marine aviator, Captain Alton N. Parker, became the first pilot to fly over the Antarctic Continent.

Since petroleum refineries are custom-designed to fit markets or products, no two are exactly alike.

New Light on an Old Story
How to find a candle to suit Williamsburg's colonial atmosphere and not to soot the priceless antique tapestries and furnishings? The answer was brought to light in an oil industry laboratory. Tests confirmed that a high candle flame smokes excessively, while a low flame smokes hardly at all. Oil researchers concocted a special recipe of petroleum wax and stearic acid, a combination that controls rate of burning. The new candles now in use burn with a smaller flame, but just as brightly as ordinary candles, and reduce smoking and smudging a full 65 per cent. The solution to many a historic problem has been found by the men and women in oil industry laboratories.

All Motorboats Must Carry Coast Guard Approved Preservers

During the 1956 boating season, the U. S. Coast Guard boarded over 62,000 motorboats on the Great Lakes and intends to go over 70,000 this year.

Of this number last year, one out of every fourteen boats boarded was cited for a violation of the Motorboat act—failure to have sufficient safety equipment to meet the legal minimum requirements of the law.

In 75% of the violations, an insufficient number of life preservers aboard accounted for the violation. All motorboats, regardless of their size, must have a life-saving device, approved by the Coast Guard, for each person on board.

Motorboats of less than 40 feet in length must have one Coast Guard approved life preserver, buoyant vest, ring buoy, or buoyant cushion, in good condition, for each person on board. Motorboats from 40 to 65 feet must have one Coast Guard approved life preserver or ring buoy for each person. (Buoyant cushions and vests will not meet the requirements for this class).

Motorboats which carry passengers for hire must have an approved life preserver (jacket type) for each person on board, and an additional number suitable for children, equal to at least 10% of the total of persons aboard. Operators must also be licensed by the Coast Guard.

All life preservers, to meet the requirements of the Motorboat Act, must display the stamp of approval by the Coast Guard. In the case of buoyant vests or cushions, a tag should be attached showing this approval.

This law is for the boatman's own protection. If you need a life preserver once and don't have it—you'll never need one again.

Gramma Didn't Have It So Good Yesteryear

Housewives should never feel downtrodden over preparing family meals.

They have a silent helping hand of scientific research right beside them in the kitchen, which is making the job easier all the time.

And while preparation is getting easier, foods are becoming more attractive, better tasting, easier to digest, and more nutritious, says Albert Weinstock, assistant supervisor of biochemistry and food technology at Armour Research Foundation of Illinois Institute of Technology.

Pointing out the acceptance that has been realized in frozen, instant, and concentrated foods in only a few years, Weinstock says this is just the beginning of many new types of better food that require less preparation, less cooking, and less watching.

Housewives, he believes can even look forward to things like exotic tropical fruits as commonplace on their dinner tables. Research on such techniques as freezing and radiation will bring foods from far away places with tastes and colors now found only in their own locales.

Weinstock also reminds the housewife of newly developed infrared and electronic ovens, which mean better—"practically automatic"—methods of cooking and baking ahead for her.

And when her husband comes home at night, there's even a possibility she'll be able to mix him a martini simply by dropping a pill into a glass of water.

"But the woman's best kitchen friend," Weinstock says, "probably will remain the automobile, which can whisk her and the family off to their favorite restaurant after a long, hard day."

HEALTH TALK

High Blood Pressure A Symptom
When your blood pressure rises above a normal range, you are said to have high blood pressure. This is not a disease in itself, but a clue or symptom that must be linked to a cause. For this reason, your physical examination must include a number of tests, apart from a complete case history of yourself, that will tell your physician many things to help not only in his diagnosis, but to guide your treatment, the Educational Committee of the Illinois State Medical Society observes in HEALTH TALK.

You have two levels of blood pressure, apart from the normal range: systolic and diastolic. The former is the pressure within an artery at the moment your heart contracts, forcing your blood into the arterial system that extends throughout your body. At the moment it contracts, your heart is said to be in systole.

Diastolic pressure is the blood pressure within the arteries at its lowest level, that is, between heart beats and at the moment when no blood is being pumped into the arteries. Here your heart is relaxed, and your arteries are least distended by the contained blood. Diastolic pressure represents the actual resistance to flow of blood within the arteries, a factor which the heart must overcome to keep the blood moving forward.

Your arteries and blood vessels are tube-like structures, varying in length and size. They form a vast network-like transportation system for the blood, extending to all parts of the body. Tiny web-like figures, called arterioles, form the branch ending of the arteries. When, for any reason, these are constricted or narrowed the outflow of blood from the artery is impeded. The heart, however, continues to pump a normal, or approximately, so quantity of blood each minute into the arteries. When the normal flow of blood into the arteries is present, but the outflow from the arterioles is slowed up, we can understand why the blood pressure must rise. Yet the exact cause for the hypertension is not known.

In controlling high blood pressure, your physician seeks to establish the underlying cause. It may stem from or be associated with a large group of different conditions. One may be nephritis or Bright's disease, an infection of the kidneys. Hypertension is also associated with a variety of tumors which may affect the adrenal glands and brain, or it may come from an obstruction which impedes the automatic release of urine, such as an enlarged prostate, a gland found in men only. The kidneys are nearly always involved in hypertension, but numerous other conditions may also be responsible.

High blood pressure ranks second in importance in making heart disease the major cause of death in the United States. Yet with proper medical management, the condition need not be as serious as many people seem to think. Certainly the outlook for the patient with high blood pressure is brighter today than in years past.

not just steak.... Delicious Jewel Rib Steak!

Jewel meat is better because it's cut that way!
Take rib steak for example. Only the first five ribs of beef make tender, juicy rib steaks. That's why Jewel never cuts the rest of the rib for anything else but pot roast. And, of course, like all Jewel beef, Jewel rib steaks are U.S. Choice. Two more reasons why, for meat...

Guard Against Ivy Poisoning This Summer

About this time of year almost everyone has the desire to get out on the lake, in the woods or on the golf course. One thing that is common to most of us on these outings is Ivy poisoning, and you should know how to protect against it according to the National Safety Council.

Ivy poisoning is a term used to refer to skin irritation resulting from contact with any one of more than 60 varieties of plants found in the United States.

Most persons are immune to the biggest share of them, the Council said. But nearly everyone who touches the three more commonly known plants—poison ivy, poison oak and poison sumac—is affected to some degree.

Such poisonous plants are the bane of outdoor workers. There's even risk for garage mechanics, golfers—and dog-lovers!

In one year more than 2,000 employees of the Connecticut State Highway Dept. contracted ivy poisoning, losing from two to five days of work. This despite a program of inoculations, eradication of roadside growths of the plants, and years of experience in detecting them.

There are cases on record of garage mechanics getting the rash from working on an auto that had come in contact with the irritation-producing plants. Golfers, too, have picked it up when they handled a golf ball that had crushed leaves of one of the three plants.

And, of course, there are instances of dog-lovers coming down with ivy poisoning after petting Fido—who just trocked in the scrub.

Ivy poisoning is caused four ways, the Council pointed out. These include bodily contact with any part of the plant, exposure to smoke from the burning plant, contact with clothing or other objects that have been exposed to it, and wading or swimming in water containing its oil.

Here's a brief description of the "Big Three":

Poison ivy, a low shrub or climbing, creeping vine, has leaves (a shiny, dark green in summer, a brilliant orange or scarlet in fall) that may be notched or smooth and are arranged in groups of three on short stalks. It may be found in every state (except California and Nevada) in woods or in the open—along fence rows, paths and roadways, and climbing trees or posts.

Poison oak, a variety of poison ivy, is a term usually given two plants—one, a shrub, the other, a shrub that may become a vine. Leaves of the former resemble small oak leaves, occur in groups of three, are somewhat hairy and deeply lobed, and usually are found south of a line connecting southern New Jersey to Tennessee and extending as far west as Missouri. Leaves of the second type—which are oval and rounded—also come in threes. Strictly a western plant, it's found in states bordering the Pacific Ocean and grows in the same locations as poison ivy.

Poison sumac, also known as white sumac, poison ash, poison dogwood, poison elder and thunderwood) is a shrub, but occasionally can be found as a tree 20-30 feet high. Its sharply pointed, smooth, only leaves are arranged in pairs along a slender stem with a single leaf at the end. Poison sumac has smooth, cream-colored berries growing in loose clusters along the side of a branch or stem.

Many popular misconceptions exist concerning the three poisonous plants. Among them are these:

1. The blisters from ivy poisoning don't contain poison. They do. Breaking the blisters spreads the irritation.

2. Eating leaves of the plants affords protection. It doesn't. Death has resulted from this.

3. Some persons are immune to ivy poisoning. No one is. Nor does immunity once insure future immunity.

4. Others can catch poison ivy from their rash or blisters. They can't—it's not contagious.

If you come in contact with the poison, the Council said, wash the affected area five or six times with plenty of laundry soap and tepid water. Don't use a brush or rough wash cloth. Self-treatment can be risky, so see a physician.

"Above all, learn to know and avoid these hazards," the Council said. "That's the best protection."

WHY re-enlist in the small-car army?

READ THIS STARTLING FACT

5 out of 10 Smaller Cars wear a Pontiac Price Tag —yet none gives you Any of Pontiac's Advantages

PONTIAC GIVES YOU UP TO 8.9% MORE SOLID CAR PER DOLLAR!

Not one of the smaller cars can give you the heavy-duty construction, the road-hugging lift and solid security that surround you in every Pontiac. Yes, Pontiac's the nimblest heavyweight you ever managed—and your Pontiac dealer can show you more than six dozen advanced-engineering reasons why! Pontiac has gone all out to make this genuine big car the best behaved beauty that you ever had the pleasure of bossing. You'll find Pontiac's exclusive Precision-Touch Controls make steering and braking the surest, easiest you've ever experienced! Park it, cruise it, try it in stop-and-go traffic... this is driving the smaller jobs can't duplicate.

PONTIAC GIVES YOU 4 TO 7 INCHES MORE WHEELBASE!

The small cars extend bumpers and fenders to look big—but Pontiac puts the extra length where it counts—between the wheels! Pontiac's longer stride brackets the bumps instead of riding on them. And this extra length shows up inside, too, in stretch-out space for six footers. Add to Pontiac's bonus in length its all-new suspension system and you have an exclusive Level-Line Ride no car at any price can surpass... and a built-in sense of direction and security that will spoil you for the smaller cars forever!

PONTIAC'S PERFORMANCE TOPS THE BEST THE SMALL CARS CAN OFFER—BY A WIDE MARGIN!

Not one of the smaller cars can measure up to Pontiac Performance. Whether you judge a power plant by engineering statistics or on-the-road performance, Pontiac's Strato-Streak V-8 stands head and shoulders above anything in the low-price field. Your Pontiac dealer will be happy to show you a complete facts-and-figures comparison—then an eye-opening test drive in traffic or out on the highway will supply all the heart-lifting proof you need that Pontiac has separated the men from the boys when it comes to performance.

—AND PONTIAC HAS ALWAYS BEEN FAMOUS AS ONE OF AMERICA'S TOP TRADE-INS!

Maybe it comes as a surprise to you that so much more car can be yours at the same price you've seen on the smaller cars. But there's the fact! And Pontiac is a wonderful investment, too! As you know, it has always commanded a top trade-in. So why not step out of the small-car class and into a Pontiac... there's nothing in your way. Your Pontiac dealer has the keys and an eye-opening offer waiting for you right now!

So why not look and feel like a million—instead of a million others?

BOW! If you want the ultimate in both economy and extraordinary performance, new Tri-Power Carburetors is available at extra cost on even the lowest priced Pontiac models! It's America's newest power source and exclusively Pontiac's at 34 low 1 cent!

State Senator Reports

(By Senator Robert McClory)
Let's spend a day with our State Senator. This is a typical day in Springfield, during the 70th Illinois General Assembly.

When the phone—in our hotel room rings at 6:45 a. m., it's time to get up. The radio will bring the news while we wash and dress. Then a few moments of prayerful reflection precede the ride down in the elevator. Two morning newspapers are scanned in the hotel lobby and the editorials are read carefully. These may influence our judgment on pending bills.

A group of 8th graders and their teacher, from our district, await us for breakfast in another hotel. So, we hurry to eat—with all fifty of them—to write in their "Autograph Books," and to talk to them briefly about the General Assembly and how it operates. We'll look to see them during the day, but now we must hurry off because there's a meeting of the Senate Executive Committee at 9 a. m.

Joint resolutions, commission bills, confirmations of appointments by the Governor; these, together with most of the "reform" bills, are on the Executive Committee agenda. We discuss the bills for an hour. Then we're off to the Senate Chamber.

Lt. Gov. John W. Chapman calls the Senate to order at 10 a. m. Our chaplain (who is a different person each week) invokes a blessing upon our deliberations, and we embark on first, second, and third readings of Senate bills. We debate and finally pass a bill to regulate "lobbyists." It receives 32 votes (2 more than a majority). We turn then to House bills in the Senate. The bills are read by the Secretary of the Senate by title, and several House bills are amended on second reading. Then the Secretary reads Committee reports. And—by this time—it is 12:30.

We hurry off for a half hour lunch period in the Lounge. At one o'clock we look up our personal secretary. We read dozens of letters, telegrams, and post cards that have been received on pending bills, and dictate replies.

At 2 o'clock, we meet with the Senate Judiciary Committee. We consider bills changing the Criminal law and the Probate law. The members of our committee are all lawyers, and the Chicago Bar and Illinois State Bar Associations are represented at our meetings and advise us on many of the bills.

It's 3:30 before the meeting ends, and we must rush to the Committee on Highways and Traffic Regulations in order to preside as its chairman. We maintain some semblance of order, despite spirited debates on such issues as the maximum speed law bill, and a bill to substitute a ton-mile tax on trucks. Senator Bill Connors and Senator Roland Libonati, veteran Democrats from the Chicago wards, exchange quips and indulge in quick repartee—to relieve the seriousness of our tasks. At the end of our debates most bills are voted out "DO PASS"—unanimously. We adjourn the Committee meeting at 4:30.

For the next hour we are deep in mail again—dictating replies and looking up the House bills (which are still in the House) about which some of our constituents have written. Occasionally we must report the bills are no longer pending—in fact, they were either approved—or defeated—long before the writer started his or her statement to us.

We have time—by continuing our rushing—for a swim at the Elks' Club, and a quick shave before leaving to attend a "legislative dinner" sponsored by the Illinois State Bar Association. By the time the acknowledgments of distinguished guests and the diverting musical are over, it's 10 o'clock.

Back to our hotel room, to read bills, prepare debate for the next day's session, write letters to our wife and children (whom we seldom see these days), and to reflect quietly on the great issues still pending in the 70th Illinois General Assembly.

Interspersed with the events of this day are numerous meetings with lobbyists (who urge support or defeat of various bills), conferences with fellow legislators (concerning bills on the calendar), telephone calls, and meetings with State officers (involving errands and favors for constituents). Tomorrow will be very much like today—until, of course, June 30th when this session comes to a close.

SAFETY-BUZZER

—the "built-in conscience" that buzzes when you reach the miles-per-hour you want to stay under, keeps silent when you drop below that pace.

You could add up the figures on size, weight, room, power.

From that alone you'd discover an important fact: how much more automobile you get in this Buick that's priced so close to the smaller cars.

But in your heart you know you want even more:

You want action. You want fun. You want lift and life and response. You want to feel absolute master over your going and stopping.

So try this Buick—just try it.

It drives and rides and brakes and steers and handles like no other car you've ever known before.

It has a brilliant new V8 engine—like silk with the flow of Niagara.

It has a spectacular new Dynaflow*—instant and smooth to the infinite.

It has powerful new brakes, new roadability,
a new precision in its handling.

But the total feeling you get from all this is far, far more than words can bring you.

Come in, sit behind the wheel, and see for
